GEMME OF WHITTINGTON, STAFFS

ARMS:

CREST:

John Gemme of Whittington, Staffs yeoman

[Birmingham Reference Library MS 3878/67]: Quitclaim from John Gemme of Whytynton Whittington, co. Staff., yeoman to Richard Huddylston, esq., Lord of Elforde Elford co. Staff. of a river meadow with appurtenances near the River Tame - and Reference: MS 3878/69: Testimony of John Deyster of Elforde, Elford co. Staff., husbandman, in a dispute between Richard Huddylston of Elforde, co. Staff., esq., and William Babynton of Tymmore Tamhorn, co. Staff., esq., concerning land in Elford, called Lolyms. Creation dates: 20 January 1538/9

[STAC 2/32/153] PLAINTIFF: William Babyngton DEFENDANT: John Gemme, John Hewys, alias Wharthaw, Thomas Tylman, John Gennyns, and Peter Fulchese PLACE OR SUBJECT: Forcible entry on lands of the dissolved monastery of Merevale at Tymmore COUNTY: Stafford 22/04/1509-28/01/1547

Humphrey Gemme of Whittington, Staffs "gentleman" c1560-m 12 Jan 1590 Tamworth: Dorothy Ticknell
(not present at coronation of Charles I and later fined œ for knighthood) 2 Feb 1625.6

John Gemme
m 30 Sep 1633 Sutton Coldfield, Warwicks: Eleanor Harvey

(4/3/05)